HEALTH OF THE CITY. After diligent inquiry, up to 5 o'clock yesterday we could hear of but four cases and no death by cholers during the day. At that hour the weather was cooler and cloudy, with signs of rain. The alarm in the city has entirely subsided.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.—We are pained to learn that a young man named WILLIAM McCAR-ROLL died yesterday from taking an over-dose of laudanum. Mr. McC. was employed in the Drug Store of W. F. GRAY, Broad street, where during the day previous to his death he was engaged in the preparation of cholers medicines. He became alarmed at the exaggerated reports in circulation, and on retiring at night placed a vial of laudanum near his bedside. During the night it is supposed he fancied himself attacked by cholera, and in his alarm took a large dose of laudanum, from the effects of which he died yesterday about noon. Mr. McCarroll was a very promising young man, and his melancholy and premature death should be a warning to others not to suffer themselves to become unreasonably alarmed under present circum-

THE OPERA.

We and other habitues of the Opera ought to unite in a vote of thanks to the manager, for the agreeable surprise in not letting us know beforehand half the merits of Madame Pico. We certainly never passed an evening more delightfully than in listening to the light, sparkling music of Rossini, as rendered by this most efficient company. The best understanding seemed to exist between the singers and the audience. Every point told with good effect. The public was not as chary of applause as it usually is, and the whole performance went off with an animation which shows how readily our people acquire a taste for the beauties of the Opera, which we do not doubt will become more and more popular on each succeeding night. Pico has a charming voice-so sweet, so clear, and so admirably well managed. The two arias, " Una soce poco fa," and "Non piu mesta," were rapturously applauded, and would have been encored had it not been that the great length of the piece and consequent fatigue of the singers forbade it .-When it came to the beautiful trio, " Zetti, Zetti," we could no longer be kept within bounds, nor could the Opera be continued until that was repeated, to the manifest delight of all present. VIETTI, as Count Almaviva, showed vast talent as a Comedian, and could not be excelled by any actor on any stage in the drunken scene. The music is admirably suited to his voice, and he sang it with more than his usual spirit and vivacity.

We had expected much of TAFFANILLI, as we thought that his Figaro, (as we had heard,) would be the ne plus ultra of comic acting, but we were disappointed. He was lively and bustling, but displayed no mirthful humor. The very difficult song, the test of all baritones, " Largo al factotum." was correctly rendered; but we have before our mind's eye Liston, Harley, Murray, and Jefferson, who were all great in the English translation of the mme piece.

We must say a word of praise for Signor AMATI, who played Basilio remarkably well. Nor must we pass in silence Signor Candi, who is one of the best comic actors in old men's characters we have ever seen. In fact we are surprised that his talent for acting has not been more thoroughly appreciated, but we suppose that, has rather militated against his dramatic reputation. There is one great merit in the Opera, as presented to us now, that is well worthy of remark, and that is, the extreme care and attention that is bestowed upon every character, no matter how trifling. It is often the case that on the American stage the leading characters of a play may be performed with great merit, but the whole interest of the performance may be marred by some unlucky contre-temps of some of the minor characters.

As usual, the Orchestra, under the able lea lers'up of S goor Arorri, obtained a full share of approbation. Any one can see how thoroughly every musician is identified with him as if but one soul beat in every bosom-how exact the time and how close the attention. The solos on the clarionet and bassoon were of themselves worth the price of

To-night Norma will be represented, and we have no doubt, from the great desire that has been expressed to hear it, will be attended by a very large crowd. If Madame Seidenberg, who makes her first appearance in the character of Adelgisa, has a tithe of the merit of Madame Pico, we shall regret that she has not been brought forward at an

THE CONFERENCE AND SLAVREY .- On the 25th inst, (says the Columbus Times) the Conference acted upon the report of the committee appointed upon the 9th Section of the Discipline. It will gratify the friends of the church everywhere in the South to learn that the 9th Section was expunged, as well as all other parts of the Discipline which condemned the institution of slavery. The general rule forbidding "the purchasing of men, women and children, with the intention to enslave them," and which has reference to the African slave trade, was retained, though the vote upon the ex-purgation even of this Rule, was 47 to 54. The Methodist Church has thus placed itself upon scripture foundations upon this subject, and deserves and will receive the commendation of the Southern people for its bold and manly assertion of the apostolic doctrine upon this vexed question in the face of the insane clamors of a wild fanaticism which has substituted its puling philanthropy for the word

CENTRAL GEORGIA FARMING.—The Sandersville Georgian says that Corn, in that section of the State, although small for the season, and the stand rather bad, grows rapidly; and cotton is rapidly I sing its redish hue and is becoming decided green. Small grain crops too, look well, although wheat in some parts, is suffering with rust and blast. We do not remember a season in which the wire or bud worm and the cut worm have been so destructive as during the present. Despite, however, the disadvantages of late season, frost, croughts, wet and warm, we entertain no doubt that with good seasons and a moderate late fall, our farmers will do

H.G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment Triumphant over Disease

This truly great medicine still goes on, conquerleg dis ease, and snatching many a poor powerless victim from the grave. By its powerfully stimulating, penetrating and anodyne qualities, it restores the use of limbs which have been palsied for years; and by its singular power of reproducing the synovial fluid or joint water, it cures all diseases of the joints with surprising rapidity. The rheumatism, and affections of the spine and spleen, it has proved itself a specific; and for affections of the lungs, liver, and kidneys, t is a most valuable and powerful auxiliary; also, for all diseases of the glands, scrofula, goitre or swelled neck, etc., etc. And indeed for almost any disease where an external application is required, this medicine stands unparalled .-Sprains, cramps, bruises, wounds, chilblains, burns, etc., are speedily cured by it.

From the Hon. Peter Menard, one of the oldest settlers in

It gives me great pleasure to neid my testimony to the virtues of your great medicine. One of my blooded horses had a swelling over the cap of the knee, about the size of a hon's egg. Some said it was a strain, and some, that it was the joint water from the knee, and could not be cured. I tried oil cedar on it, and all the liminests and ointments and they did no more good than water. I then, by persuasion of my friends, tried H. G. Farrel's Arabian Liminest, and I was happy to find it take effect after a rew days, and it floatly cared the noble animal entirely. I think it decidedly the greatest liniment for horse's, as well as human fiesh, I ever knew. Tremont, Taxewell county, Itl., March 16th, 1849.

PALSY OR PARALYSIS .- Thadeus Smith, of Mudd Creek, Tazewell county, Illinois, says: "I had lost the use of my arm for more than a year, by palsy or paralysis; the flesh had entirely withered away, leaving nothing but skin, muscle and bone. I tried all the best doctors, and all the remedies I could hear of, but they did no good. I then commenced the use of H. G. Farrel's Arabian Linkment, and a few bottles entirely cured me, and my arm is now as strong and fleshy as the other; it is also first rate for burns, sprains and bruises.

Look out for Counterfeits! Look out for Counterfeits!

The public are cautioned against another counterfeit, which has lately made its appearance, called W. B. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, the most dangerous of all the counterfeits, because his having the name of Farrell, many will buy it in good faith, without the knowledge that a counterfeitexists, and they will perhaps only discover their error when the spurious mixture has wrought its evil effects.

The genuine article is manufactured only by H. G. Farrell, sole inventor and proprietor, and wholesale Druggist, No, 17 Main Street, Peoria, Illinois, to whom all applications for Agencies must be addressed. Be sure you get it ions for Agencies must be addressed. Be sure you with the letters H. G. before Farrell's, thus-H. G. FAR RELL'S—and his signature on the wrapper, all others are counterfeits. If it is inquired how this great restorative is accomplishing such extraordinary cures, we can only reply that in the Arabian herb that forms its cardinal ingredient, have been blended, by the Omnipotent Physician, a large amount and greater varieties of curative properties than had heretofore been supposed to exist in an hundred different articles of the pharmacopera. A whole medicine chest of remedies, so to speak, seem to have been combined in this herb; and in the Elixir or Cordial we have their concentrated essence. It is the effect however, not the cause, with which we have to deal in the practical application of the medicine. R. R. R.-Five Complaints raging in one system, cured y R. R. R. Remedies, in twenty-two days-Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Neuralgia, Fever Sores, Chills and Fever. Mr. G., a gentleman lately returned from a western tour, was afflicted with each of the above complaints at the same time. He commenced the use of the R. R. R. Remedies on the 24th June. For Rheumatism he used Radway's Ready Relief-he used it externally. In less than ten minutes after the first application he was free from pain; he could use his limbs as free as ever. For Neuralgia he used the Rendy Relief, internally and externally. It instantly allayed the most violent irritations and spasms; it imparted strength and vitality to his nerves. He has not been troubled since the tenth day with any neuralgia pains. Chills and Fever-Radway's Ready Relief-internally and externally it imparted heat, health and strength to the cold and chilly blood, and neutralized the poisonous miasma of ague.
